BRIBES? YOU BETCHA!

The first ten full table orders for Escapades will receive a bottle of wine. Don't drink wine, then you can put it into the Escapade wine raffle. Either way, win-win. Let's get those tables filled early and fast this year!

I look forward to receiving your order soon!

Last Week's Meeting

December 20, 2011 Notes by Phil Bevan

It was great to see that many of our members were sporting Holiday attire. Understandable, though, when you think of the few opportunities you get to wear your Santa Claus tie.

This meeting was significant in that we held elections for the next Board of Directors for the next Rotary year. The nominating committee, as always, consists of our past presidents. Here are the results:

- President Elect.....Greg Haffner
- Secretary Robin Corak
- Treasurer.....Ed Admundsen
- Financial Secretary..... Phil Bevan
- Board of Directors Dawn Colston
Allyson Gregersen
Ed Pfeiffer
Perry Raak
Steve Thompson
Harry Williams

Happy B-day Senator Joe. He's one of our "baby members" (only 31 years old this Friday).

Announcements:

Josh introduced our new Partners for Work Intern. His name is Andrew Lomax. Andrew greeted each member and handed out name badges. He is very friendly. Great to have Andrew's help!

Sean reminded us of the T-Birds Rotary Hockey day January 20th when each ticket purchased will result in a dictionary for one of our Kent 3rd graders. This makes a great holiday gift!

Steve T. was very happy with the clothing and food gathered for the needy. He delivered 1.8 loads with his SUV.

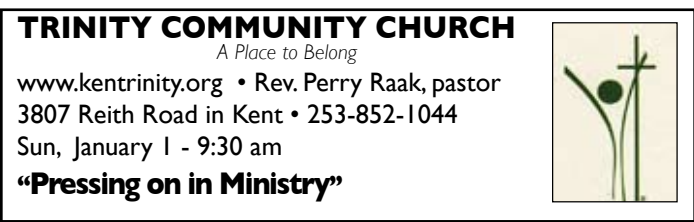

Inductions:

Harry "These are exciting times" Williams introduced our two new members, Virk and Mohinder.

Welcome, welcome, welcome! Virk wore a special coat that took 6 months to hand weave. Dawn said out loud what we were all thinking.....What in the world is Councilman Ron doing by putting a Rotary pin in it?!!

Classification Talk:

Eric Priebe gave a great talk. He grew up in a large family where he was the "Star Athlete" and his baby sister was the "Drug Dealer" (really now, Eric). However It's all OK now. You see Eric is now the dealer (Equity dealer that is) and his baby sister is a cop!
